

Furthur

AÑEJO TEQUILA – 100% DE AGAVE

Aged 1 Year in Vino de Naranja Barrels

The earth is red and rich with iron in Arandas.

Small Batch
Highland Tequila

The iron rich soil produces a fruitier style tequila.

Distilled and bottled in Arandas, Mexico
at Feliciano
Vivanco NOM 1414

We take this fruitier style blanco tequila and fill the juicy Vino de Naranja barrels with this bright and vibrant spirit.

One spirit in one wood! The blanco is not influenced by any other wood, so we can appreciate the flavors of the Vino de Naranja barrels in all of their honesty.

Aging blanco tequila in these beautiful barrels for 1 year is a first and we are taking the category Furthur, in the spirit of the Furthur Bus.
