VEDRENNE

de Bourgogne LIQUEURS

“Supercassis” is the flagship production from the house of Védrenne since 1923 in Nuits Saint Georges. State of the art production methods allow the finest available blackcurrants to be infused in premium spirit then sweetened to perfection. Supercassis from Védrenne is the number one recipient of gold medals and accolades in the world.

Only fresh fruit are used for these “crèmes”, delicately infused in premium spirits, the juices are then gravity poured into the receiving tank, the remaining pulp gently pressed will give their additional second juices. They will then be perfectly sweetened in order to enhance their fragrances.
